

Two Pawtucket men indicted on sex trafficking charges

Posted: Jun 18, 2014 10:36 PM EST Updated: Jun 18, 2014 10:36 PM EST

By News Staff

news@abc6.com

A grand jury has indicted two Pawtucket men on sex trafficking charges.

It's alleged that Curtis Maxie, 58, of Pawtucket, and Marquis Melia, 22, of Pawtucket, trafficked a minor for sexual purposes.

The indictment also alleges that Maxie sexually assaulted the young girl multiple times during that same period.

Maxie was charged with three counts of first degree sexual assault, one count of sex trafficking of a minor and one count of conspiracy.

Melia was charged with one count of sex trafficking of a minor and one count of conspiracy.

Both men are scheduled to be arraigned in Providence County Superior Court on June 25.